

Institute for Research on Andhra Pradesh (IRAP)

<https://irap.org.in/>

Invites you for a webinar on

Andhra Pradesh's Three Capitals: Decentralised Governance and Inclusive Development?

By

Dr E.A.S. Sarma

Dr Sarma was a member of the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) from 1965-2000 and held senior positions with Govt of A.P and Govt of India. He is presently active in articulating people's concerns for protecting the environment, promoting electoral reforms and safeguarding the livelihood opportunities of the low-income groups in India, including the tribal groups.

Chair: Dr Usha Seethalakshmi

Independent Researcher and a Member of MAKAAAM

Date and Time: 31 July (Saturday) at 5 pm.

Weblink: <https://meet.google.com/cxk-fgtx-soj?hs=224>

IRAP is an independent organization committed to doing analysis and research on issues of contemporary and historical relevance to the state of Andhra Pradesh. The institute's goal is to promote interdisciplinary interactions among scholars and activists with a special emphasis on historical and political economy based understanding of society.